

Fulbright Scholars-in-Residence (SIR)

IAPCHE Endorses Program

---

About SIR:

- Focuses on the needs of your institution
- Brings international scholars to U.S. institutions
- Focuses on providing resources for historically black colleges and universities, Hispanic-serving institutions, Native American tribal institutions, community colleges, and small liberal arts institutions.
- Administered by the Council for International Exchange of Scholars (CIES).
- IAPCHE can help you connect with this program.
- Funded by the U.S. State Department's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs with contributions from the hosting institution.

SIR Can Help Your Institution to:

- Advance its international presence
- Assist in faculty and curriculum development
- Diversify the experiences of its students, scholars, and surrounding community

Scholars in Residence may:

- Help institutions upgrade and internationalize their curricula.
- Give advice on faculty development.
- Conduct lectures from a comparative perspective.
- Participate in diversifying the experiences of students, faculty, and surrounding communities.
- Gain insight and information for own research and lecturing.

Applying for SIR:

- U.S. Institutions: <http://www.cies.org/sir/application.htm>
- Non-U.S. Scholars: http://www.cies.org/sir/how\_to\_apply.htm

---

TAKE THE LEAD:
Connecting Christians in Higher Education around the World