

Services that IAPCHE provides to its growing international membership, grouped under three headings. IAPCHE member institutions:

Informing

- Receive our quarterly newsletter Contact, a digest of events, and publications for Christian higher education;
- Learn of the global expansion of Christian higher education from our first-ever global survey;
- Read articles and special journal issues devoted to Christian Higher Education.

Connecting

- Locate research partners through our online interactive membership directory;
- Receive advance notification for IAPCHE's regional and global conferences;
- Participate in members-only consultations connecting institutions around the world.

Equipping

- May enroll younger professors with week-long Faculty Enrichment Programs that connect faith and learning, improve teaching, and provide strategies for student outreach;
- May take advantage of discounts on journals and the Faith and Learning Network, an exclusive bibliography of faith and learning resources;
- Receive all currently available proceedings for your library.
